The Bankrupt Act.

We have been requested to publish the Bankrupt Law. This is impossible. It makes a respectable volume. In order, however, that our readers may understand it, and may therefore not be liable to be imposed upon by parties, who are indifferent to the interests of others, we have taken some pains to compile from several sources the following general principles of the Act, for the benefit of all who contemplate seeking its benefits. But first of all, we advise our friends not to determine hastily what they will do, until they have had the counsel of a respectable and intelligent Attorney, upon whom they can rely.

1. The manifest design of the Bankrupt Law is to benefit honest, but unfortunate, debtors, whose just liabilities are greater than they can pay.

2. To become a voluntary bankrupt under this Act, the debtor must owe at least $300, which, of course, he is not able to pay in full.

3. Petitioners under the Bankrupt Act are required to render a schedule of all their debts and liabilities, of every kind and description whatever, and also an inventory of all their estate, both real and personal, including all property and effects of which they are possessed, or in which they may have an interest, (though not in possession) in conformity with certain "Forms" prescribed in the "General Orders" of the Supreme Court of the United States. These schedules, verified by the oath of the petitioner before a District Court Judge, Register in Bankruptcy, or U. S Commissioner, must accompany the petition and, when filed, is the commencement of proceedings in Bankruptcy. If it should be found out, pending the proceedings at any time before the bankrupt is discharged, that he has, by any shift or subterfuge, made a false or partial schedule, this would be evidence of fraud and would defeat his discharge.

4. When the petition is by a firm or copartnership, a full set of schedules of the respective estates of the members of the firm should also be added.

5. When the petition is filed, the case is immediately referred to a Register, who examines the petition and schedules annexed thereto, and if they are correct in form, makes a certificate to that effect, to be filed with the Clerk, then adjudges the debtor a Bankrupt and issues a warrant to the messenger to summon all the creditors named in the petitioner's schedules to meet at the Register's office, at a certain time and place, to prove their claims and elect one or more Assignees to take charge of the Bankrupt's estate.

6. A creditor can, however, prove his claim at any time previous to the last dividend, which will generally be six months subsequent to the adjudication of Bankruptcy.

7. No creditor has any standing in a Bankrupt Court until he proves his claim.

8. Creditors have no right to compel the Bankrupt to answer questions concerning the disposal of property by him acquired, subsequent to filing a petition in Bankruptcy. "In other words, the date of the filing of the petition by or against a debtor, is the date at which, if adjudication of bankruptcy follows, the old order of things passes away and a new leaf is turned over." On this point decisions have been variant. The safe rule appears to be, that the applicant in Bankruptcy has a perfect right to claim whatever he has made after his application, by his personal exertions, but any profits he may have made, from investment or credit, may be liable to the claim of the receiver up to almost the period of his discharge.

9. The Bankrupt can apply to the Court at any time after the expiration of six months, and within one year from the adjudication, for the discharge in bankruptcy, and in case no assets come into the hands of the assignee, or no debts be proved against his estate, at any time after the expiration of sixty days.

10 As soon as an Assignee is elected or appointed, the Judge or Register will convey to him, by deed of assignment, all the bankrupt's property except what is exempted, viz: Household and kitchen furniture and other necessaries not exceeding in value $300 five hundred dollars, also his wearing apparel and that of his wife and children, and such other property not included in the foregoing as is exempt from levy and sale upon execution or other process by the laws of the State in which the bankrupt resides, to an amount not exceeding that allowed by State exemption laws in force in 1864. A safe Counselor suggests, under this head, that the common impression that persons may become bankrupts and yet be allowed to retain their houses and lands, or other property of considerable value, is a great mistake. Under the Act, no honest Bankrupt in this State can have allotted to him, free from the operation of the Act, exceeding $700 besides the wearing apparel of himself and family. Bankrupts in this State are not entitled to homesteads under this Act.

11 It is the duty of the assignee, within twenty days after the assignment to him is made, to add to the bankrupt such articles as are exempted, and file an inventory of the same with the value of each article so allotted, and creditors may make objections to the report of the Assignee at any time within twenty days after it is filed.

12. As to costs in bankruptcy proceedings, section 46 of the Bankrupt Act provides that the petitioner, before a warrant issues, shall deposit fifty dollars with the Register, or with the Clerk, to be delivered to the Register as a security for his fees. General order XXIX provides that the fees of the Register, Marshal and Clerk shall be prepaid or secured before they can be compelled to act. It is also provided by General order XXX that where the debtor has no means, and can prove the fact to the satisfaction of the Court, upon application, an order will be made requiring all the costs in the case to be paid out of the fifty dollars deposited with the Register. If, however, there are assets, but not enough to pay the Messenger after deducting the Bankrupt's exempted property, so that nothing comes into the hands of the Assignee, the fees will have to be paid by the Bankrupt; but if the Assignee receives assets, the fees of the Messenger will be paid by him before any dividend is made among creditors.

13 Some suppose that the Register is entitled to $50 fee. The fees of the Register, Messenger, Clerk, and costs of publication of notices in Bankruptcy, are fixed by law, and if they demand higher fees, they are liable, as in other cases of malfeasance in office. In ordinary cases of Bankruptcy, the fees may amount to $130. In some cases more, in some less—the costs depending on the amount of labor and litigation involved in each case.

14. Differences of opinion among Attorneys have existed in this State, as to the limit which the Act makes, as to the time to make application in Bankruptcy. Some have supposed that no deb or will be permitted to apply for Bankruptcy after some early day in March, unless he is able to pay fifty per cent of his debts. We are assured that this is not the case. The law did not go into operation for the purposes for which it was enacted until June 1st, 1867. It gives twelve months from that time, to all honest debtors, whatever may be the extent of their indebtedness which they cannot pay in which to present their applications. After the 1st of June next, every debtor must be able to pay fifty per cent of his indebtedness in order to a successful application in bankruptcy, unless he first obtain the consent of a majority of his creditors.

The above is a fair specimen of the kind of ballot to be cast at the approaching election by the Conservatives.

ISRAEL G. LASH.—Mr. Lash has been nominated, by the Radical party of the 5th. Congressional District, as a candidate for Congress. He was chosen over Windy Billy Henderson and Tourgee for that position, though Windy Billy ran him to the throat latch. Sufficient time has elapsed for Mr. Lash to have declined; we, therefore, presume he has accepted the nomination. We are surprised to find him in such company. Had he been, at first, a secessionist, and then a professed peace man, and then a Union man, we should not have been surprised at his present position. But he has been an undeviating Union man from the beginning, and yet he allows himself to be put in a position, which fixes and identifies him with the Holden-Radical party of North Carolina, as a friend of negro equality and negro supremacy and an endorser of the odious Constitution offered us by the Mongrel Convention. Mr. Lash, like some others, whose names are allowed to remain on the Holden-Radical ticket, are compromising and antagonizing their former principles. How can any man, any straight-out Union man, any honest, consistent man, allow his name to be put down as an endorser of the Holden-Radical party and of the new Constitution?

Mr. Lash owes it to his old friends, especially, and he owes it to the people of his District, to be out-spoken as to his present position. It may do for office seekers and partizan tools to put themselves under party drill, and play mum in order to get office, but, unless Mr. Lash has changed very much, he cannot be classed in that category. His past record and his present affiliations do not correspond. There is something wrong in this matter. Let Mr. Lash speak out. Is he a Holdenite? Is he a Radical? Does he advocate negro equality and negro supremacy? Is he in favor of the new Constitution, and will he vote for it?

Some people are deceived by the supposed difference between a Radical and a Republican. Young converts to Republicanism do not like to be called Radicals.—They at once correct you, "I am a Republican." This is all bosh. No two eggs are nearer alike than Radical and Republican are. The difference is that a Radical is only a little more consistent and stronger Republican. The Radicals control the party and are indeed the life of it. Let the so called Republicans of North Carolina be called by their right names, Radicals.—Every endorser of the new Constitution is a Radical. There is no real Republicanism in it, except Black and Red Republicanism. France rung the changes upon Liberty, Equality and Fraternity, and Louis Napoleon gloated over Universal suffrage, just before France sunk into the arms of despotism!

Shall MARRIAGE BETWEEN NEGROES and WHITES—amalgamation,—be allowed? That is one of the issues.

CLOSING SCENES IN THE CONVENTION OF 1835 AND 1868.

We clip from the editorial columns of the Asheville News, of the 26th ult., the following interesting notice of the Convention of 1835, for the purpose of correcting some trivial inaccuracies, and appending additional remarks:

"A CONTRAST FOR THE THOUGHTFUL.—In looking into the debates and proceedings of the Convention which met in Raleigh on the 4th June, 1835, to amend the Constitution of the State of North Carolina, we find among its members the names of Hon. William Gaston, Ex Governor David L. Swain, Hon. B. S. Gaither, Hon. Daniel M. Barringer, Ex-Gov. Richard D. Speight, Hon. John T. Toomer, Hon. Robert B. Gilliam, Ex-Gov. John M. Morehead, Hon. Kenneth Rayner, Hon. Asa Biggs, Hon. Nathaniel Macon, Hon. Weldon N. Edwards, and many others, distinguished alike for great moral worth and high intellectual attainments,—men who, as profound jurists and eminent statesmen, have won for the good old North State imperishable renown. This august body, it is universally conceded, embodied more talent, wisdom and virtue than any similar body of men which ever assembled in the State. They met on the 4th day of June, 1835, and after performing their arduous labors, adjourned upon the 11th July following, having been in session only thirty-eight days, at one dollar and fifty cents per day, and five cents mileage going to and returning from the Convention. Gov. Swain, who then represented Buncombe, received as his per diem compensation $57, and $30 mileage, total $87. Perhaps no member received as much as one hundred dollars. There were no negroes in this noble body of men. They met to prepare a government for white men, and, as the fruits of their wisdom and labor, gave us the Constitution of 1835, under which we have lived up to the present time.

How shall we compare the members composing the Convention which has just adjourned, with those of 1835? It would be to compare wisdom with foolishness, virtue with depravity, profound learning and eminent statesmanship with gross ignorance and contemptible demagogism. No one member of it has a State reputation, and few are known out of the immediate counties which they pretend to represent. Fifteen dirty, black negro fellows have been the ruling members of the body; and if the people adopt the Mongrel Constitution which they tender them, the negro will stand before the law clothed with all the civil and political rights of a freeman,—the equal of the white man—in many cases his superior, and in many counties his ruler and master. The social equality of the white and black races will have been established, and intermarrying encouraged and legalized. The white race in the State will become extinct by amalgamation with the negro blood.

They were in session about sixty days, at eight dollars per day, and 20 cents per mile for mileage. The member from Buncombe received something over six hundred dollars, for giving the county the benefit of his wisdom,—while in 1835 the State paid Gov. Swain for like services only $87.—Wisdom and statesmanship were then scarce; they are now abundant, and command a high premium. This Mongrel body adjourned a few days ago, but, unlike that of 1835, they broke up in a big bull dance, in which old niggers and young niggers, he-niggers and she niggers, and enough white men to give the crowd a rather speckled appearance, zealously participated. Oh! fellow countrymen, upon what strange times have we fallen! Look upon this picture and then upon that. Hold fast to the Constitution made by your great and good fathers, and treat with the scorn and contempt, which become white men, the dirty thing which is offered you in its stead."

We find, on reference to the records in the Treasury Department, that the highest compensation received by any member of the Convention, was $94. This sum was paid to James W. Gwinn, of the County of Macon,—$57 per diem compensation and $37 for 740 miles travel. We copy the four first names on the pay roll, with the aggregate compensation of each annexed:

"Hon. Nathaniel Macon, President, $63.50.
John L. Bailey, $72 20.
William Gaston, $69.
David L. Swain, $57."

Gov. Swain, it will be perceived, did not charge his mileage. His successor's (Candler's) mileage amounts to $116.40, more than double the amount of Gov. Swain's entire compensation. Mr. Macon, for his services, received less than a tithe of the sum awarded to Kelvin J. Rowles.

The Reporter was the venerable Joseph Gales the father of the stenographic art in the United States, the personal and political friend of Mr. Macon, during a long series of years. He reported and published the debates of the Convention in a neat octavo of 423 pages, without compensation. Mr. Joseph W. Holden received for reporting the debates, in the columns of his newspaper, $6 per diem. The other officers of the Convention were a Secretary and Assistant Secretary, a Principal and an Assistant Doorkeeper. Neither Sergeant-at-Arms, or an Engrossing Clerk, white or colored, were considered indispensable, at a time when the condition of the Public Treasury, and the aggregate resources of the State, presented a very dissimilar aspect to the eye of the financier and the philanthropist. The venerable Edmund B. Freeman, the present Clerk of the Supreme Court of North Carolina, was Principal Secretary, and recorded all the ordinances of the Convention and engrossed the Constitution on parchment. He received, for all these services, $294.—The Principal Secretary and the two Engrossing Clerks of the late Convention received, for like services, $1,093.60!

We copy, from the reported volume, the following account of the closing scenes in the Convention:

FRIDAY, July 10, 1835.

Mr. Gaston asked leave, while the President was absent from the Chair, to lay a resolution on the table, to be called up as one of the last acts of the session.

SATURDAY, July 11, 1835.

Mr. Swain being temporarily in the Chair, Mr. Gaston, of Craven, said that before the Convention performed the last Act, which it had to do, he would call up the resolution that he yesterday laid on the table. He said, I am about to offer to the Convention a resolution on which I know I shall meet with perfect unanimity. However we may have been divided on other subjects, in returning our acknowledgements to our venerable President, for the able manner in which he has presided over this body, there will be no difference of opinion. The following resolution was then read:

Resolved unanimously, That the thanks of this Convention are due, and are hereby respectfully and affectionately tendered to, the Honorable NATHANIEL MACON, their venerable President, for the distinguished ability, dignity and impartiality, with which he has discharged the duties of his station.

The resolution being read, Mr. Carson, instantly rose and expressed a hope, that this mark of well-deserved respect to their venerable friend, for probably the last public act of his life, would be testified by the members of the Convention standing. The word was no sooner spoken, than every man in the Convention was on his feet.

The President, who had resumed his Chair, addressed the members of the Convention, as follows:

"Gentlemen—The merits which you have ascribed to me, in the performance of my duty in the Chair, belong to you. I have been for a long time engaged in public business; and though no one will charge me with being a flatterer, I must say, that I have never witnessed so much good order and decorum of conduct in any public body with which I have been connected. When I entered upon the important duties to which the Convention in their kindness called me, I was fearful that I should not have been able to discharge them with any satisfaction to myself or to the Convention, nor should I, without your attentive aid and assistance. To you, therefore, my thanks are due for all your kindness.

"This, I expect, will be the last scene of my public life. We are about to separate; and it is my fervent prayer that you may, each of you, reach home in safety, and have a happy meeting with your family and friends, and that your days may be long, honorable and happy.

"While any life is spared, if any of you should pass through the county in which I live, I shall be glad to see you."

On the President's resuming his seat, and the applauses of the Convention having ceased,

Mr. Carson, of Burke, rose and said, that the concluding remark of the venerable President had called him up to say, "that he was about to leave old North Carolina, to reside in the far West, where he should be happy at all times to see any friend from the old State—to be a North Carolinian, would be a sufficient recommendation—his House and Corn-crib should be at the service of his friends."

Mr. Gaston, from the Committee of Enrolment, reported the Amendments to the Constitution, correctly enrolled on Parchment, which received the signatures of the President, Principal Secretary, and Assistant Secretary.

The President then informing the Convention that the business of the Convention was finished,

On motion, of Mr. Gaston, of Craven, the Convention adjourned sine die.

Mr. Carson is remembered by our oldest citizens, as among the most eloquent speakers of his day. He represented the mountain District in Congress during a series of years, and was, subsequent to his removal, Secretary of State of the Republic of Texas. He, together with two-thirds of his compeers, are in the grave. No one of the survivors was a member of the late Convention; no one is supposed to have been eligible, either to vote or for membership, and if the distinguished dead could have been summoned from the tomb, no one of them would probably have been deemed worthy of a seat in that body. Comment on the simple, touching, brief speeches of Mr. Macon and Mr. Carson are unnecessary. Some of our older citizens, who were present, can never forget the effect produced on those who heard them. Governor Owen wept like a child, and there was not a dry eye in the Convention, or among the spectators.

The mongrel Convention of 1868, whose infamous work the people are called upon to endorse, was closed, as is said above, with a general bull dance and ribald songs in which negroes and whites indiscriminately participated. The Convention of noble patriots of 1835, who touched but lightly the old Constitution, under which we have lived for nearly a century, finally closed their labors thus:

"Before the motion to adjourn sine die was put, the Rev. Dr. McPheeters offered up the following impressive prayer:

"And now, O Lord, as the business of this Convention is drawing near to a close, bless with thy blessing whatever has been done in accordance with thy will, and graciously direct this day, in all that remains to be done.

"We thank thee for thy Providential care over all the members of this body, and for the high degree of order and harmony which has characterized the whole occasion.

"Give to the people of this State, before whom its amended Constitution will soon pass in review, wisdom, that they may be directed in their final action thereupon.

"Deliver them from passion, prejudice, and all unreasonable prepossessions. May they approach the question before them, with honest, liberal and enlightened views, and decide thereon calmly, conscientiously, and in the fear of God.

"Forgive, O Lord, all that has been said or done amiss during this occasion, and graciously prosper every measure calculated to advance the civil, social and religious interests of the community in which thou hast cast our lot.

"And when this body, now in session, shall have adjourned, conduct them all in safety to their respective places of abode, there again to meet, in circumstances of comfort, their families, their friends and their constituents.

"And, as they will never again all meet together on earth, prepare them, Gracious God, for meeting in the Grand Convention of that approaching day, when the assembled Universe will stand before God, and be judged according to their works."

THE SCALLAWAGS show some ingenuity, it must be confessed, in pandering to the semi barbaric tastes of the African. The so called Convention ended in a corn-shucking song and dance. And we see, by the Winston Sentinel, that while Col. Masten, of Forsythe, was making a speech, a few days since, with considerable effect upon the negroes, a white leader of the League, in order to draw them off, commenced a dance in an adjoining groggery,—he dancing, while the negroes "patted juba" for him!

IF YOU WISH to be free,—vote against the Mongrel Constitution.

If you wish your children to be free,—vote against the Constitution.

If you do not wish negroes to RULE OVER YOU,—vote against the Constitution.

If you wish to see the "abomination of desolation," and the fairest portion of God's heritage laid waste, and the people burdened with taxes which they are unable to bear,—then submit; bow your necks to the yoke, and all these things WILL COME UPON YOU!

THE MILITIA, THE SCHOOLS, &c.

The new Constitution declares every male person born in the United States, or who has been naturalized, who is twenty-one years of age and shall have resided in this State twelve months preceding an election, and thirty days in the county where he proposes to vote, an elector, and, by consequence, a citizen of the State. This, of course, includes blacks and whites. All such persons are included in the term "the people," mentioned in the first Article or Bill of Rights, in and from whom all political power is invested and derived.—Throughout the entire Constitution, no distinction whatever is made between white and black. The doctrine of equality between the two is rigidly observed. Blacks and whites are equally eligible to the State Senate and "House of Representatives," and to Congress, as well as to any other office in the State.

"The people," meaning whites and blacks, are, by the "Declaration of Rights," declared to be equally entitled to every privilege, franchise or benefit which the State can confer.

It is, therefore, perfectly plain that the General Assembly can pass no law, making distinction between black and white, which the Courts of the State, under the new Constitution, would not be compelled to declare unconstitutional.

If the Legislature were to pass a law, requiring the enrolment of blacks and whites in different companies and regiments; if it were to pass a law prohibiting whites and blacks from intermarrying; if it were to pass a law requiring whites and blacks to ride in different coaches or public conveyances; if it were to pass a law prohibiting whites and blacks from sitting in the same seats at Church or at the same table at Hotels; if it were to pass a law forbidding white children to be apprenticed to black masters; if it were to pass a law forbidding blacks from being guardians to white children, or being executors or administrators on the estates of white men,—such laws, if brought before the Courts, would be pronounced unconstitutional.

Radicals deny that this is so. But upon what ground? They deny it without a reason. Various attempts were made to get the Convention to speak out on these subjects, but every proposition was VOTED DOWN.

In the Convention, on the 10th of February last, while the report on the militia was under consideration, Mr. Graham, of Orange, moved to amend the first section, as follows:

"That colored persons shall be organized into separate companies, and that no white man be required to obey a negro officer."

The amendment was DEFEATED by a vote of 83 to 9.

On the 15th of Feb., while Article first, "Declaration of Rights," was being considered, Mr. Durham, of Cleaveland, moved to insert the following section:

"The Caucasian and African races are distinct by nature and color; therefore, all marriages between the Caucasian, or white race, and the African, or black race, are forever prohibited."

Mr. Durham demanded on this the yeas and nays, but the Convention refused to grant them, and, by a strict party vote, LAID HIS PROPOSITION ON THE TABLE.

On the 4th of March, Mr. Durham moved to amend the report on Corporations by adding the following proviso:

"Provided, That institutions of learning, in which black and white pupils are educated promiscuously, shall not be incorporated under general laws or special act."

The amendment was REJECTED, promptly.

On March the 6th., the report on Education being under consideration, Mr. Durham moved to add the following section:

"Section 6. The General Assembly shall provide schools for the black children of the State, separate and apart from those provided for white children."

The section, as proposed, was REJECTED by a vote of ayes 15, noes 90.

On the same day, Mr. Graham moved to amend section 18 of the Education report, by adding the following proviso:

"Provided, there shall be separate and distinct schools for white and black children."

The amendment was LOST, by a strict party vote.

Mr. Durham, on the 10th of March, proposed to amend the 12th section of the Judiciary report, as follows:

"Provided, that white orphan children shall not be bound as apprentices to colored masters, and that no colored person shall be appointed guardian of a white ward.

Upon the amendment Mr. Durham asked the yeas and nays, which were refused.—The amendment was LOST, and the section adopted as reported by the Committee.

Now, here is evidence sufficient, (and more could be given, if needed,) to prove, that the Mongrel Convention intended to leave no gap open, by which any distinction shall be made between black and white, in the legislation of North Carolina. Is any one fool enough to suppose, if the new Constitution is ratified, that the Legislature can alter these things, as the Radicals intimate? Such an idea is ridiculous, if a Constitution means any thing.

SPEAKING AT LEXINGTON.—A large crowd attended the speaking at Lexington, on Tuesday. They were ably addressed by Hon. T. S. Ashe, D. F. Caldwell and H. K. Nash, Esqs. Much enthusiasm prevailed and our friends have high expectations.—At night, a White Man's Club was formed, and Messrs. Ralph Gorrell, J. R. McLean and W. M. Robbins addressed the crowd.—Division, we learn, prevails among the Reds. The Conservatives ARE ONE, and will do their duty.

D. F. CALDWELL.—We are glad to see that our old friend, Frank Caldwell, is out fully for the canvass. He is a whole team when he starts. We learn that his speech, at Lexington, was a most telling one.—Forsythe, Stokes, Surry, Ashe, Yadkin and Wilkes must not be overlooked by our State Canvassers.

HON. THOS. S. ASHE, AT CHARLOTTE.

The Conservative candidate for Governor addressed a large crowd of people at Charlotte, on Monday, with fine effect. The Times and Bulletin give interesting abstracts of his speech.

The latter paper says:

"For soundness of logic and unanswerable arguments, combined with a lottiness of character, and high toned dignity, we have never listened to a more powerful address.—Mr. Ashe is not a flowery speaker, but he presents in clear and unmistakable language, so simply that every one can understand, his arguments. He does not work upon the feelings of his hearers, by outbursts of eloquence, but speaks in a steady and argumentative way, that is calculated to make his political friends and opponents pay marked and the closest attention to what he has to say, and to treat him with that dignity and respect which the candidate on the radical ticket for the same office would fail to command."

The Times says:

"He dissected, fully, the new Radical constitution, which is now the important issue before the people, and showed it up in all its villainy. If the constitution is ratified, it cannot be changed for years, and it will bring degradation and ruin to our children and children's children. For one, he had rather live under military rule as we are now, with our old constitution, than to attempt to escape by such means as proposed by the new constitution. The Legislature, should the Radicals succeed, would be under just such men as composed the recent convention, until August 1870. He briefly demolished every flimsy argument the friends of the new constitution brought forward in its favor—showing clearly that it did not interdict intermarriage between negroes and whites; that it placed both races together in the common schools, militia, &c., and that every proposition to separate them was voted down, &c. He said all were allowed to vote for State officers by the constitution, but that was interdicted by an order from Gen. Canby.

These are only a few points made. He urged all whitemen to stand firm—the rock had been cleft and the waters of Liberty are fast flowing towards us; that reaction had commenced, and if we were true to ourselves we would yet retrieve our fortunes and preserve our noble inheritance.

The speech was able, argumentative, dignified and statesmanlike, and gave universal satisfaction."

TALL WALKING.

"I walk to certain victory," said the Tucker Hall Orator. They do say that you did some tall walking once the other way, and left the victory, which you deemed it "neither comfortable nor healthy" to fight for yourself, to be received by another, whom you afterwards deserted, and for whose head you thought a reward of $25,000 ought to be offered. But walking is obsolete now, and you practice riding to victory in a carriage and four, cheered on by four miniature flags surmounting the carriage, and by multitudinous corn-shucking hurras of "these colored men, and possessing more of the intelligence of the State than the old broken down copperhead party," (sic!) speeding the parting guest, and rejoicing in the grand display. You know "when Andrew Johnson retires, that that noble patriot, Ben Wade, will take the reins of government. Under his administration all things will tend in one direction." "We are all going to h——, together," said that "noble old patriot, Ben Wade," a few weeks ago. Let us all love wisdom and eschew the ways of old Ben Wade, and not be found in his company, if we can help it. Neither victory or peace are at the end of those ways, nor in that direction, either walking, or in a carriage and four, with four little flags on the top.

But you may be mistaken again. When you run against Gov. Vance, your paper was equally sure of a majority of from thirty to forty thousand. And on the night after the election, you gave it as your "candid opinion" that your majority was 10,000—and, perhaps, 20,000. There seen a majority of about 36,000—but how was it? Some people say it was over the left. X.

WHICH IS BETTER, the old Constitution of our fathers, under which we have lived and prospered, or the new Constitution, which obliterates all the ancient and honored landmarks, and provides for a TAXATION, which will crush the people to powder, and which is designed to have the effect of transferring the property of our people into the hands of NORTHERN SPECULATORS?

The SUCCESS of the white men of North Carolina, on the 21st. of April, is a CERTAINTY, if they will all VOTE, as we believe they will.

☞ We call the attention of the Conservative press and people to the changes made in the above arrangement for the mass meetings. It is suggested to those Conservatives living where the mass meetings are to be held, who make arrangements for the meetings, to be sure to write and secure the attendance of some of our own Speakers, on these occasions, in order that there may be no disappointment. Our friends in Congress may be expected, unless the public interests prevent.

HON. WILLIAM A. GRAHAM

Will address the citizens of Alamance, Randolph, Guilford and Chatham, at Snow Camp, on Saturday, April 11th. It is anticipated that a large number of people will be in attendance.

Gov. Graham will also be present at the Mass Meeting at Statesville, on the 7th; at High Point, on the 9th; and at Greensboro', on the 10th.

LECTURE.—The Rev. T. H. Pritchard delivered at the Baptist Church, on Tuesday evening, the Lecture heretofore announced, on the subject: "The Literary attractions of the Bible." We regret exceedingly, that so few of our citizens availed themselves of the fine literary treat thus offered, and that the audience was not worthy, in point of numbers, of the effort.

The Lecture was chaste, polished and elegant. The style was somewhat elaborate, but exceedingly rich and vigorous; the manner of delivery pleasing and graceful. Every one who heard, enjoyed the lecture, and the revered orator sustained his high reputation.

He first spoke of the extreme beauty and glory of the visible world,—the revelation of God in nature; and thus, by easy and natural sequence, introduced his theme, in the classic language of Sir William Jones; and unfolded eloquently the points of attractiveness in God's written revelation, apart from its inspiration and main teaching, in its History, Law, Science and Poetry. Each of these features he set forth with fine taste and power, lacking only that enthusiasm, which the full house, that he should have had, would have inspired. He evinced much and variet acquaintance with History, ancient and modern; the foundation of law and its deduction from the Bible, even through classic and pagan pens; the conflicts and triumphs of Scripture with advancing science, and though he disclaimed the "divine frenzy," he showed a very nice and just appreciation of true poetry. His peroration, declaring the Bible one grand epic poem, revealing its first act in the creation; delineating graphically some of the characters that appeared on the stage, the Great Character of all, and depicting the closing scenes of judgment and eternity, was in every way a fitting conclusion. He abounded in chaste and beautiful metaphors, in happy historical allusion, and in eloquent passages, and we would be only too glad to have it repeated.

ROBBERY.—Rufus H. Page, Esq., had his poultry house entered on Tuesday night and all his fowls were stolen. Some of them, we understand, were cleaned and offered for sale, the next morning.

MAYOR'S COURT.—J. Q. Bryan, white, Nat Mitchell, colored, and David Jones, colored, charged with a riot and affray, were returned to the Superior Court.

SERGEANT BATES has arrived with his flag, and so has our friend Alexander Creech, with a large and handsome stock of Dry Goods, Fancy Articles, &c.

The Ladies of Raleigh are respectfully requested to give Creech a call, and we feel sure that they will be well paid for their visit.

SERGEANT BATES, carrying the United States flag, arrived in this City, on yesterday morning, at 9½ o'clock. He was received at the Depot by the Mayor and Commissioners, and tendered the hospitalities of the City. The Mayor greeted him in a few remarks, when C. M. Busbee, Esq., a gallant ex-Confederate soldier, made the Sergeant, by request of the Municipal authorities, a brief and very neat address of welcome. He was then escorted, in a carriage with the Mayor, to the Yarborough House, where he received many visits of compliment and courtesy.

The Sergeant's presence at the Depot was the signal for three cheers, given by the large crowd there assembled. As he rode down Fayetteville Street, he was also greeted with demonstrations of kindness, and, after arriving at the Yarborough, he was called out to one of the balconies. He made a few remarks, explaining the purposes of his trip, and said that he would soon go home a living witness of the loyalty and law-abiding spirit of the people of the South.

The Sergeant remained in the city only until the afternoon, when he returned to Greensboro. He will thence resume his pedestrian trip to Washington.

The Sergeant paid us the compliment of a visit, and we were pleased to find him an intelligent, agreeable gentleman. He contradicts the impression that his mission is the result of a wager, or that he has any pecuniary interest involved in the matter. He is solely actuated by a patriotic determination to make good his assertion, made in Wisconsin under circumstances of excitement, that the so-called rebels of the South are as loyal to the flag and the government of our fathers as the North is.

REGISTRATION.—The First Board of Registration, as heretofore announced, will re-open their books, in this city, on Tuesday next, and keep them open for five days.

The Second Board will re-open at Morrisville on the same day, for the precincts of Laws', Oak Grove, Hays', Sorrell's, Morrisville and Spikes'.

The Third Board will, on the same day, re-open at Nat. Jones', for the precincts of Busbee's, B. Jones', Nat. Jones', Dupree's, Upchurch's and Joel Jones'.

FORTY-THIRD SENATORIAL DISTRICT.—We are pleased to learn that W. L. Love, Esq., of Macon, has been nominated as the Conservative Candidate for the 43rd. Senatorial District. He is opposed by Rev. Mark May, Radical, of bad fame among the decent people in his old county of Yadkin, which has not been much improved by his late associations. Mr. Love is heartily in the canvass and will put his mark on Mark May.

IN THE CANVASS.—Maj. R. W. York, of Chatham, having arranged his matters, has determined to hold on, and will canvass the county thoroughly. We expect to hear good news from old Chatham. She must be redeemed. The day has passed by, when Chatham should be led by such men as McDonald and Chicken Gunter. Let her true men arise and shake the dust from their garments, and rally for the white man's government and the white man's country!

FIRE IN THE MOUNTAINS.—Our noble transmontane brethren are doing good service for the cause of Conservatism in the West. Vance and Graham, and Erwin and Ashe, and others, are kindling the old fires in the West as they advance. We learn that in Macon, Jackson and Cherokee, Hons. A. T. Davidson, W. L. Love, and others, are addressing the people with fine effect. The white people are coming out of the Leagues. They cannot longer stay with the dark lantern, black-and tan-crowd.

STOKES.—There was a fine rally of the white men of Stokes, at Danbury, a few days since. The people were enthusiastic; Conservatives and former Rad Strings joined hands in the great issue that this is, and must be, a white man's government. The people were addressed by Col. J. T. Morehead, Hon. A. M. Scales, Cols. Dillard and Masten, and others.

CANDIDATES.—Lawson H. Mason, of Gaston, is the Conservative candidate for Senator for Lincoln and Gaston.

Elisha Saunders is our candidate for the Commons in Lincoln.

D. P. High is the Conservative candidate for the House for Columbus.

THE HON. C. C. CLARK addressed the people of Newbern, on the political issues of the day, ably and eloquently, on Tuesday evening. The ladies graced the occasion with their presence, and there was great enthusiasm. The fires of Conservatism burn brightly in old Craven.

SUPERIOR COURT.—This tribunal is now in session, presided over by Judge Buxton, who exchanged ridings with Judge Gilliam.

We learn that, owing to the heavy State Docket, the civil cases were all, except a few not litigated, continued until next term.

Gen. Wm. R. Cox, George M. Whiting, Charles M. Busbee and Thos. P. Devereux, Jr., Esqs., were qualified to practice in all the State Courts.

A NEGRO preacher from Kinston went down to Moseley Hall, a few days since, to make a Radical speech to his brethren. A noble old fellow, of his own color, flayed him alive and admonished all his colored friends to vote the Conservative ticket.

THANKS to our friend, Jno. B. White, of Dallas, for a club of twelve subscribers for the Weekly.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Boarding House, Newbern, N. C: Mrs. S. J. Carroway. We call attention to Mrs. C's Card, and can honestly endorse her excellent qualifications as a landlady. Sojourners in Newbern will find her house all that is desirable.

Agricultural and Building Lime—Corn and Cotton Planters: James M. Towles, Agent, Raleigh.

W. T. Faircloth, Esq., announces himself as a candidate for Solicitor in the Third Judicial District.

See notice of change of schedule on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad.

GLORIOUS RALLY!

We have only time and space to say, this morning, that the white men's meeting, at the Court House, last night, was a rouser.—every nook and corner of the building was crowded, and the spirit was glorious.

Col. Wm. A. Jenkins, of Warren, led off in a speech of great power and eloquence, which was received as all his efforts are, with great applause. We have rarely known a speaker, who produces so fine an impression upon an audience.

He was followed by Hon Sion H. Rogers, Capt. J. J. Davis, of Franklin, Quentin Busbee, Esq., Capt. Lyon, of Granville, and C. M. Busbee, Esq.,—all of whom made short but good and effective speeches; each carrying the enthusiasm to a higher and higher pitch.

THE BALL OPENED.—The Conservative county candidates had a large and respectable crowd to hear them, at Rolesville, on yesterday. A good many negroes were present, who listened respectfully and attentively. Our candidates all spoke with fine effect.

Booker Hutchings (negro) was on hand—we presume as the proxy of the absent Radical candidates.

Rolesville is all right for our ticket and against the Constitution.

P. S. Major Jones was on hand, and Bledsoe skinned him from head to heels.

P. S. S. Dave Lewis laughed himself into the good grace of everybody—black and white.

CARPET BAGGERS.

Of these vagabonds and pests a western contemporary draws the following faithful picture. You find them, he says, everywhere. "On the cars, and in the towns, and prowling about in country places; and you can't take up a paper, hardly, or hear a man speak, but what there is something about the 'carpet-bagger.' Few know where they come from; nobody knows how they live—perhaps nothing but an itemized account of the secret service money of the Reconstruction Committee could tell that—but there they are buzzing about like gadflies, and seeking the weak points of the country with the unerring instinct of carrion crows. Hounded out of the North for rascality—for everywhere now and then some ugly past is brought to light about them—they seek and obtain employment in the cause of Reconstruction and come South. Some worm into the Bureau, others foist themselves on the Revenue, others play pimp, spy and cali boy for the service, and, outside of these, the great bulk sustain life by taking up subscriptions from the freedmen and levying contributions for the good of the party on enthusiastic Radicals at the North. Their mission and the manner of their operation is also described as follows: We know one case where, on the approach of election, one of these gadflies came, carpet bag in hand, into a village; next day announced himself a candidate; on the third day was 'elected'; and now sits in a sovereign convention to reconstruct a State. Still another case occurred, and it is susceptible of verification on oath, where another of these creatures, on his way to take his seat as a 'delegate,' pawned his carpet bag to pay expenses, and never coming to redeem it, had said receptacle opened only to find therein some Radical documents, under Congressional frank, and a few little personal articles, not worth, in all, over two dollars and a half. Such are the new makers of Constitutions, and the guides of negro voters to a "high civilization."

THE ALABAMA ELECTION—REPORT OF GEN. MEADE.

The Secretary of War sent to the House on the 28th., in compliance with a resolution of that body, the official report of Maj. Gen. Meade to Gen. Grant, dated Atlanta, March 23, giving the following analysis of the returns of the vote in Alabama, at the election submitting to the registered voters the constitution framed by the Convention of that State:

Total vote cast for the constitution, 70,812; against, 1,005; total at the election, 71,817. Of that vote there were colored, 62,194; white, 6,702; not separated, 2,921. Of the colored vote, for the constitution, 62,089; against, 105; white, 5,902 for, 800 against. A comparison of the vote cast in October last for the Convention with the present election shows the white vote for the Convention 18,551; white vote for constitution, 5,802; loss on constitution, 12,751; colored vote for the Convention, 71,930; for the constitution, 62,089; loss on constitution, 9,641. Total loss of vote on the constitution from the vote for the Convention, 22,392.

THE ARKANSAS CONSTITUTION.

[Special to the Memphis Avalanche.]

LITTLE ROCK, March 27.—Returns are coming in as rapidly as possible, and of the right stripe. Incomplete returns up to this evening from four fifths of the counties in the State indicate the defeat of the Constitution by not less than 7,000 votes.

The Gazette of to-day contains a number of affidavits from voters, showing that heavy frauds were practiced in Johnson county by the registrar. It is believed that heavy frauds have also been practiced in large negro counties, whose votes have been swelled out of all reason. One small precinct in this county yet to vote will conclude the election on Monday next.

FIRST CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

The delegates to the Conservative District Convention, for the First Congressional District, are requested to meet at Edenton, Chowan county, on Tuesday, the 7th. of April, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Congress, and appointing delegates to the National Democratic Convention.

The First District is composed of the counties of Currituck, Camden, Pasquotank, Perquimans, Gates, Chowan, Hertford, Northampton, Halifax, Martin, Bertie, Washington, Tyrrell, Hyde and Beaufort.

THE MCCARDLE CASE.—It is reported that the Supreme Court, with only one dissenting vote, decided favorably to the petitioner in the McCardle case, but that subsequently, with two dissenting votes, said to be Justices Field and Grier, it was determined by the court not to promulgate at present the proceedings and decision made in the case.—*Nat. WHICH IS BETTER, a Government administered by intelligent and virtuous native WHITE MEN, or a Government administered by needy squatters, ignorant Africans and impudent allies of mixed blood?

SHALL WHITE CHILDREN BE APPRENTICED TO NEGRO MASTERS?—That is one of the issues. The mongrel Convention refused to prohibit such a thing!

Our Afternoon Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 1, M.

The case of Strong, a fugitive from Virginia, and arrested under a requisition from Gen. Schofield, is progressing in the District Supreme Court.

The House, on assembling, went into Committee of the Whole and proceeded to the Senate, without transacting any business.

The Senate had no legislative session.

At 12 o'clock, the impeachment began.

The Supreme Court adjourned to Monday, when the term will close.

The galleries are thin,—there being two excuses in town, which compete successfully with impeachment.

Sumner's motion that Chase had no right to give the casting vote, yesterday, was defeated by a vote of 21 to 27.

MARKETS.

NEW YORK, April 1, M.

Stocks active. Money very active at 7. Gold 1,39½. Bonds, old, 109½; new 106½; Virginia's 67; Tennessees, ex-coupon, 68; new 67½.

Cotton excited and higher. Sales 5,000 bales at 28 for Uplands.

LIVERPOOL, April 1, M

Cotton, though active, is generally easier in tone. Prices advanced to 11½ for Uplands, and about 12 for Orleans.

Our Midnight Dispatches.

CONGRESS—IMPEACHMENT.

WASHINGTON, April 1st, P. M.

SENATE.—After reading the Journal, which was interrupted by Sumner's ineffectual attempt to declare Chase's casting vote illegal, on yesterday, proceedings were resumed.

Both Managers and Counsel consumed their hour and Chase was sustained by a strict party vote.

Pending the discussion, the Managers declined answering what use they intend making of the disputed evidence, as it would expose their plan of prosecution.

The question at issue was, whether what Thomas said and did could be received under this ruling. It was proven that Thomas said he intended using force and to break the door down, and that, afterwards, he said he was deterred from using force by his arrest.

The contest arose over the admissibility of what Thomas said and did, previous to receiving orders to take the War office.

Chase ruled it out.

Drake appealed, and the appeal was sustained, by 28 to 23.

The Managers stated, previous to voting, that they intended proving, by this evidence, that Thomas, in the line of his conspiracy, attempted to corrupt employees of the War Office.

Butler violently assailed Gen. Thomas, during this controversy, as having been disgraced by Lincoln and Stanton, and aside from assisting the President in his conspiracy, it gratified his revenge.

Under this ruling, it was proved that, shortly after Thomas' reinstatement as Adjutant General, he called up the heads of Bureaus and chief employees and informed them that the strict rules would be relaxed.

The cross-examination elicited the fact that these speeches were confined to the employees of the Adjutant General's department, and that no allusion was made to Thomas' probably becoming Secretary of War.

The point created quite a buzz.

Further evidence showed that General Thomas said he intended applying to General Grant for force to put him in possession.

But three witnesses were examined, to-day. Adjourned.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 1, P. M.

Butler takes the lead with the Managers. He is their emergency man.

The practice is very sharp, precisely after the manner of the Police Courts, except that the thrusts are more keen.

Hancock received his Department officers to-day.

NEGRO INCENDIARISM.

SAVANNAH, April 1, P. M.

A. A. Bradley, a Boston negro, is circulating, through this city and the country, the following incendiary circular; causing considerable excitement:

"NOTICE.—All bad men in the city of Savannah, who threaten the lives of the leaders and nominees of the Republican party, President and members of the Union League of America: If you strike a blow, the man or men will be followed, and the house, in which he or they take shelter, will be burned to the ground. Take heed! Mark well! Members of the Union!!—Rally! Rally! Rally! for God, life and Liberty."

VIRGINIA CONVENTION—A NIGGER IN THE CHAIR.

RICHMOND, April 1, P. M.

The resolution inquiring into the conduct of Judge Underwood was called up.

He made a statement, denying having offered any bribes to the executive committee to be paid by Sprague, if they favored Chase or President.

The resolution was then indefinitely postponed, Ayes 20, Nays 17.

Hawkhurst, the Chairman of the Executive Committee, rose afterwards and re-asserted his published statements.

A negro member was in the Chair, to-day, for the first time since the session began.

CONFIRMATION.—The Rt. Reverend Thos Atkinson, D. D., Bishop of the Diocese of North Carolina, visited St. John's Parish in this city Sunday night last. On this occasion there were full choral services. The altar was dressed in a most tasteful manner. The Bishop was assisted in the services by the Rector and Vice Rector of St. John's and the Rector and Assistant Minister of St. James', who were in attendance.

The sermon was preached by the Bishop himself, from the following text, being a part of the 47th verse, 2nd chapter of the Acts of the Apostles: "And the Lord added to the Church daily such as should be saved." This discourse was listened to with profound attention. At the conclusion of the sermon, the Bishop administered the Rite of Confirmation to nineteen candidates, both male and female, presented by the Rector.—Wil. Journal.

One of the Radical candidates for Judge said, a few days since, that "if the Radicals were successful in the coming election, the Conservatives would have 48 hours to pack up and leave." Wouldn't he make a pretty Judge?—Wil. Star.

The number of scallawag voters in some of the counties may be exactly estimated by the number of candidates they have for county offices.—Wil Star.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

OXFORD, N. C., Mar. 31, 1868.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Nothing new about this place, of any special importance, since I wrote last. Two very able sermons were preached here, on Sunday morning and at night, in the Baptist Church, by the Rev. T. B. Kingsbury, of Warrenton, N. C. He was listened to by a large and intelligent audience, with profound attention. He is evidently a gentleman of high intellectual culture.

I notice the jail recently burnt at this place is being re-built, under the direction of Mr. Parish, of Warren County. We suppose Mr. Parish's services will be called into requisition, to rebuild the jail at Warrenton, which was also burnt, as will be remembered by the readers of the Sentinel.

The Conservatives of Granville will have a meeting here on Saturday next. The candidates are expected to address the meeting; also several other speakers.—There are precious few white Radicals in this vicinity,—hardly a single one. Some white gentlemen, who have heretofore been considered radicals, on account of taking part in some of the Radical meetings, are opposed to them strong enough. If there are two white men in this town, that will vote the Radical ticket, it is not known who they are. C.

COL. W. L. STEELE.—This gentleman is doing good service in several of the counties in that District. He has already filled many appointments, and will meet others during the campaign. The white people of North Carolina will long remember their true-hearted fellow citizens who in this crisis find opportunity to devote their time and talents for their welfare.—Wilmington Journal.

THEN.

"WHO WILL PLOT FOR THE HEADS OF ABE LINCOLN AND GEN. SCOTT?"—W. W. Holden, June 5th, 1861.

NOW.

"Our beloved State will once more put on the garments of prosperity; and our people will be contented and happy through the long ages reserved for the existence of the government which Washington established, and which LINCOLN labored and died to preserve!"

Fraternally yours,
W. W. HOLDEN, President.
JAS. H. HARRIS, 1st Vice Pres.
A. H. JONES, 2nd Vice Pres.
B. W. HORNER, Sec'y.

(Closing sentence of the address to the U. L. A. in N. B. January, 31, 1868.)

Gen. Canby's Election Order.

HEADQUARTERS SECOND MILITARY DIST.,
Charleston, S. C., March 21, 1868.

GENERAL ORDERS,
No. 45.

The Constitutional Convention of the State of North Carolina, in conformity with the Act of Congress of March 23, 1867, supplementary to the Act of March 2, 1867, "to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," having framed a Constitution and civil government according to the provisions of the aforesaid laws; and having by an ordinance adopted on the 17th day of March, 1868, provided that the said Constitution shall be submitted "for ratification to the persons registered under the provisions of this Act [March 23, 1867, Section 4] at an election to be conducted by the officers appointed or to be appointed by the Commanding General as hereinbefore provided, and to be held after the expiration of thirty days after the notice thereof to be given by the said Convention;" and having further provided, by the aforesaid ordinance, that at the same time an election shall be held for Senators and Representatives in the General Assembly, and for all State and County officers who are to be elected by the people under this Constitution, and further, that in each Congressional District of the State an election shall be held for a member of the House of Representatives of the United States Congress. It is ordered:

First. That an election be held in the State of North Carolina, commencing on Tuesday, the 21st day of April, and ending on Thursday the 23d day of April, 1868, at which all registered voters of said State may vote "For Constitution" or "Against Constitution," and also on the same ballot for the State and County officers and for members of the United States House of Representatives, as specified in the before cited ordinance.

Second. It shall be the duty of the Boards of Registration in North Carolina, commencing fourteen days prior to the election herein ordered, and giving reasonable public notice of the time and place thereof, to revise for a period of five days, the registration lists; and upon being satisfied that any person not entitled thereto has been registered, to strike the name of such person from the lists, and such persons shall not be entitled to vote. The Boards of Registration shall also, during the same period, add to such lists the names of all persons who at that time possess the qualifications required by said Acts, who have not already been registered.

Third. In deciding who are to be stricken from or added to the registration lists, the Boards will be guided by the law of March 2, 1867 and the laws supplementary thereto, and their attention is specially directed to the supplementary Act of July 19, 1867.

Fourth. Any duly registered voter of this State who may have removed from the County in which he was registered, shall be entitled to vote in the County to which he has removed and has resided for the ten days next preceding this election, upon presentation of a certificate of registration from the County in which he was originally registered, or upon his affidavit or other satisfactory evidence that he was so registered and that he has not voted at this election. It shall be the duty of the Registrars, upon the application of any duly registered voter who has removed or is about to remove from the precinct in which he was originally registered, to furnish him with a certificate that he was so registered, and to note the fact in the registration books of the precinct. In default of the certificate, the affidavit of the voter must set forth the County and precinct in which he was originally registered and the length of time he has resided in the County in which he desires to vote. In doubtful cases, the registrars or Inspectors of election shall require such additional evidence as may be necessary to satisfy them that the applicant is legally entitled to vote. Blank forms for the certificates and for the affidavits herein required, will be furnished the Registrars and the inspectors of election and those used will be attached to the ballots cast by such voters, and will be transmitted to District Headquarters with the returns required by law.

Fifth. The said election will be held in each County at such places as may hereafter be designated, under the superintendence of the boards of Registration as provided by law, and in accordance with instructions hereafter to be given to said Boards in conformity with the Acts of Congress and as far as may be with the laws of North Carolina.

Sixth. The polls shall be opened at such voting places at six o'clock in the forenoon, and closed at six o'clock in the afternoon of each day, and shall be kept open during these hours without intermission or adjournment.

Seventh. All Judges and Clerks employed in conducting said election shall, before commencing to hold the same, be sworn to the faithful performance of their duties, and shall also take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by law for officers of the United States.

Eighth. No member of the Board of Registration, who is a candidate for election to any office to be filled at this election, shall serve as a Judge or Inspector of Election in any precinct which he seeks to represent.

Ninth. The Sheriff and other peace officers of each County are required to be present during the whole time that the polls are kept open and until the election is completed; and will be made responsible that there shall be no interference with Judges of Election, or other interruption of good order. If there should be more than one polling place in any County, the Sheriff of the County is empowered and directed to make such assignments of his deputies, and other peace officers to the other polling places as may in his judgment best subserve the purposes of quiet and order; and he is further required to report these arrangements in advance to the Commander of the Military Post to which his County is situated.

Tenth. Violence, or threats of violence, or of discharge from employment, by other oppressive means to prevent any person from registering or exercising his right of voting, is positively prohibited; and any such attempts will be reported by the Registrars or Judges of Election, to the Post Commander, and will cause the arrest and trial of the offenders by military authority. The exhibition or carrying of deadly weapons in violation of General Orders No. 10, of 1867, at or in the vicinity of any polling places during the election herein ordered will be regarded and treated as an additional offence.

Eleventh. All bar rooms, saloons, and other places for the sale of liquors by retail will be closed from six o'clock of the evening of the 20th of April, until six o'clock of the morning of the 24th of April, 1868, and during this time the sale of all intoxicating liquors at or near any polling place is prohibited. The police officers of cities and towns, and the Sheriffs and other peace officers of Counties, will be held responsible for the strict enforcement of this prohibition, and will promptly arrest and hold for trial all persons who may transgress it.

Twelfth. Military interference with elections, unless it shall be necessary to repel the armed enemies of the United States, or to keep the peace at the polls, is prohibited by the Act of Congress approved February 25, 1865, and no soldiers will be allowed to appear at any polling place unless as citizens of the State they are qualified and are registered as voters, and then only for the purpose of voting; but the Commanders of Posts will keep their troops well in hand on the days of election, and will be prepared to act promptly if the civil authorities are unable to preserve the peace.

Thirteenth. The returns required by law to be made to the Commander of the District of the results of this election, will be rendered by the Boards of Registration of the several Registration precincts through the Commanders of the Military Posts in which their precincts are situated, and in accordance with the detailed instructions hereafter to be given.

Fourteenth. The State officers to be voted for at this election are:

1. Governor.
2. Lieutenant-Governor.
3. Secretary of State.
4. Auditor.
5. Treasurer.
6. Superintendent of Public Works.
7. Superintendent of Public Instruction.
8. Attorney-General.
9. One Chief Justice and four Associate Justices of the Supreme Court of the State.
10. One Judge of the Superior Court for each of the following Judicial Districts:

NEW ARRANGEMENT

FOR THE

SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,

Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.

William E. Pell, }
Seaton Gales, } Editors.

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will command it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;

Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;

The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;

The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;

The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;

The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.

The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

Terms:

Daily Sentinel, for one year,		$8 00
" "	six months,	4 00
" "	three months	2 00
Semi-Weekly Sentinel, for one year,		4 00
" "	six months,	2 00
" "	three months,	1 00
Weekly	" for one year,	2 00
"	" six months,	1 00

All subscriptions strictly cash in advance.

As an advertising medium, the SENTINEL is equal to any in the State. Terms moderate.

☞ We ask every Conservative in the State to become our Agent to extend the circulation of the SENTINEL. The events of 1868 will be exciting and important. The WEEKLY SENTINEL should be in the hands of the great body of the people. The terms are now so low that every one will be able to pay for it.
